INITIAL CREDIT COURSE OFFERINGS AT WAUBONSEE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Initial Credit courses are offered as Waubonsee Community College Dual Credit courses. Dual credit courses allow students to earn both West High and WCC credit. Successful completion of these courses earns 3 credit hours of IAI transfer credit and high school credit. Students can expect the course to be the equivalent of an AP or Honors course at West High.

All courses are 8 weeks and taught virtually in an asynchronous environment and follow the WCC summer calendar - June 14th to Aug. 7th.

PSC100- INTRODUCTION TO AMERICAN GOVERNMENT/ CIVICS

This course provides an introduction to the structure and operation of the American national government. Political institutions and American political process are included, with a focus on such topics as: the principles of democracy, federalism, the U.S. and Illinois Constitutions, elections, civil liberties, domestic and foreign policy, and executive, legislative and judicial processes.

HIS121- US HISTORY TO 1865/ AMERICAN HISTORY SEM 1

This examination of American history reviews the major historical developments from the experiences of the indigenous peoples, the colonial regimes, and nation building through the sectional crisis and concludes with the Civil War. The course employs social, cultural and transnational history, as well as the more traditional political and economic approaches. This course can be taken concurrently with HIS 122.

ECN 100- INTRODUCTION TO ECONOMICS/ ECONOMICS

This is a survey course introducing students to the basics of both macroeconomics and microeconomics. The purpose of this course is to introduce the student to the disciplines of economics and provide a basic understanding of how it functions in today's society. Topics studied include the theory of demand and supply and its welfare application, market structures, income distribution, fiscal and monetary policy, and the global economy.

HIS 122- US HISTORY AFTER 1865/ AMERICAN HISTORY SEM 2

This examination of American history reviews the major historical developments from the experiences of Reconstruction and western conquest, the rise of industrial capitalism, and American ascendance as a global power through the Cold War and concludes with contemporary American society. The course employs social and cultural history, as well as the more traditional political and economic approaches, to understand the transnational American experience since 1865. This course can be taken concurrently with HIS 121.
